INDEX TO VOL. CXI.

Abstract ideas, increasing prevalence of, as regards the constitution, 335.
Admiralty, the, and the case of the Megæra, 235.
Admiralty, the, its present administration, 375.
Adventures of Harry Richmond, review of, 755.
Alabama difficulty, conduct of the Ministry regarding it, 243—O'Dowd on it, 364—the conduct of the Government regarding it, 370—its present position, &c., 514—slow progress toward solution, 642—Review of the whole course of the Ministry on it, 767.
Alastor, publication of, and remarks on it, 429.
American revoke, the, (O'Dowd), 364.
American treaty, the, Gladstone's conduct on it, 500.
Animal food, consumption of, in France, 134.
Argyll, the Duke of, on the Collier case, 379.
Armours, the, their conduct toward Burns, 158 et seq.
Army, the, its present condition in the event of war, 374—Mr. Cardwell's plan for recruiting, &c., 503—the French, its reconstitution by Thiers, 611.
Army Estimates for the year, the, 384, 634.
Army Regulation Bill, the, 232 et seq.—the Royal warrant, 240.
Arnold, Dr., on revision of the Prayer-Book, 575.
AUTUMNAL MANŒUVRES, 322.
Ballot Bill, the debates on it, 377—defeats &c., of the Government on it, 638, 645.
Balls, form of invitations, &c., to, in France, 449.
Baxter, Richard, his 'Reformed Liturgy,' 569.
Börne on the French and German character, 207.
Bouverie, Mr., on the Ewelme case, 502
Bow, a French, description of, 451.
Brigades, best strength of, 323.
Bright, Mr., opposition of, to the Government, 511—his return to the House, and position there, 635.
Budget, the, for the year, 633.
Builinas of Russia, the, 497 et seq.
Burials Bill, opposition to it, 637.
BURNS, ROBERT, 140—tragedy of his life, ib.—parallel with Byron, 141—influence of his position in life, 142 et seq.—his birth, parentage, and early history, 144—removal to Irvine and life there, 148 et seq.—life at Mauchline, and influence of its society on him, 150—the "Twa Herds," "Holy Willie's Prayer," &c., 153 et seq.—"Scotch Drink," &c., 155—the "Cottar's Saturday Night," 157—"Highland Mary," ib.—his connection with Jean Armour, 158 et seq.—his reception and life in Edinburgh, 160—his appointment to the excise, 163—his last years, and death, 166 et seq.
Burns, Gilbert, notices of, 144 et seq pass.
BURTON'S ZANZIBAR, review of, 691.
Byron, parallel between his life and Burns's, 141 — Shelley's connection with him, 429.
Caily, sketch of Voltaire by, 281.
Cairns, Lord, on the Collier case, 380.
CAIRO, SERPENT-CHARMING IN, 169.
Calas, Voltaire's defence of, 286.
Capital, considerations regarding it in connection with the Nine Hours Movement, 69 et seq.
Cardwell, Mr., on the Army Regulation Bill, 233—his army administration, 374—his scheme for localising and recruiting the army, 503.
Cenci, Shelley's tragedy of the, 435.
CENTURY OF GREAT POETS, A, No. V., Robert Burns, 140—No. VI., Percy Bysshe Shelley, 415.
Chambers, Robert, Memoir of, reviewed, 489.
Chancellorsville, the battle of, 353.
Chatelet, Madame, Voltaire's connection with, 281.

INDEX TO VOL. CXI.

Abstract ideas, increasing prevalence of, as regards the constitution, 335.
Admiralty, the, and the case of the Megæra, 235.
Admiralty, the, its present administration, 375.
Adventures of Harry Richmond, review of, 755.
Alabama difficulty, conduct of the Ministry regarding it, 243—O'Dowd on it, 364—the conduct of the Government regarding it, 370—its present position, &c., 514—slow progress toward solution, 642—Review of the whole course of the Ministry on it, 767.
Alastor, publication of, and remarks on it, 429.
American revoke, the, (O'Dowd), 364.
American treaty, the, Gladstone's conduct on it, 500.
Animal food, consumption of, in France, 134.
Argyll, the Duke of, on the Collier case, 379.
Armours, the, their conduct toward Burns, 158 et seq.
Army, the, its present condition in the event of war, 374—Mr. Cardwell's plan for recruiting, &c., 503—the French, its reconstitution by Thiers, 611.
Army Estimates for the year, the, 384, 634.
Army Regulation Bill, the, 232 et seq.—the Royal warrant, 240.
Arnold, Dr., on revision of the Prayer-Book, 575.
AUTUMNAL MANŒUVRES, 322.
Ballot Bill, the debates on it, 377—defeats &c., of the Government on it, 638, 645.
Balls, form of invitations, &c., to, in France, 449.
Baxter, Richard, his 'Reformed Liturgy,' 569.
Börne on the French and German character, 207.
Bouverie, Mr., on the Ewelme case, 502
Bow, a French, description of, 451.
Brigades, best strength of, 323.
Bright, Mr., opposition of, to the Government, 511—his return to the House, and position there, 635.
Budget, the, for the year, 633.
Builinas of Russia, the, 497 et seq.
Burials Bill, opposition to it, 637.
BURNS, ROBERT, 140—tragedy of his life, ib.—parallel with Byron, 141—influence of his position in life, 142 et seq.—his birth, parentage, and early history, 144—removal to Irvine and life there, 148 et seq.—life at Mauchline, and influence of its society on him, 150—the "Twa Herds," "Holy Willie's Prayer," &c., 153 et seq.—"Scotch Drink," &c., 155—the "Cottar's Saturday Night," 157—"Highland Mary," ib.—his connection with Jean Armour, 158 et seq.—his reception and life in Edinburgh, 160—his appointment to the excise, 163—his last years, and death, 166 et seq.
Burns, Gilbert, notices of, 144 et seq pass.
BURTON'S ZANZIBAR, review of, 691.
Byron, parallel between his life and Burns's, 141 — Shelley's connection with him, 429.
Caily, sketch of Voltaire by, 281.
Cairns, Lord, on the Collier case, 380.
CAIRO, SERPENT-CHARMING IN, 169.
Calas, Voltaire's defence of, 286.
Capital, considerations regarding it in connection with the Nine Hours Movement, 69 et seq.
Cardwell, Mr., on the Army Regulation Bill, 233—his army administration, 374—his scheme for localising and recruiting the army, 503.
Cenci, Shelley's tragedy of the, 435.
CENTURY OF GREAT POETS, A, No. V., Robert Burns, 140—No. VI., Percy Bysshe Shelley, 415.
Chambers, Robert, Memoir of, reviewed, 489.
Chancellorsville, the battle of, 353.
Chatelet, Madame, Voltaire's connection with, 281.

"Cheap John," a, 237.
CHERSIPHRON, by W. W. S., 85.
Children, French, manners of, 452.
Church, the, in France in the time of Voltaire, 272 et seq.
Church of England, effect of the Act of Uniformity on, 568.
CHURCH REFORM, 567—long-continued use of the Prayer-Book, ib.—the Act of Uniformity and its effects, 568—the measures of Convocation, 576 et seq.—rearrangement of its revenues, 579.
Collier case, the, 240—the conduct of Ministers on it, 379.
Commercial treaties, the French, 616.
Condorcet, notices of Voltaire by, 272, 274, 279, 284.
Conservatives, the, their present position and policy, 630.
Constitution, former respect for the, 334.
Control department, the, during the Autumn Manœuvres, 324.
Convocation, measures of, regarding revision of the Prayer-Book, &c., 576 et seq.
Cookery, French, 122 et seq. pass.
COOKE'S LIFE OF GENERAL LEE, review of, 348.
Cosmos, its publication, reception and influence, 206.
COUNTRY, THE, ITS REASONABLE FEARS, 227.
CREATION, THE, BY QUINET, reviewed, 206.
Deaths, announcements of, in France, 449.
Denis, Madame, Voltaire's niece, 286.
Denison, Edward, the life and letters of, reviewed, 478.
Derby, Lord, policy recommended the Conservatives by, 246—on the Alabama difficulty, 373.
DESOLATION OF JERUSALEM, THE, by W. W. S., 83.
Directory, fashion in France during the, 32.
Disloyalty, increase of, in the country, and danger from it, 227.
Disraeli, the Lancashire invitation to, 512—his reception in Lancashire, 629—his speech at Manchester, 631.
Dissenters, the, position taken up by, on the Education question, 338.
DOWNWARD COURSE, THE, 757.
Drake, John, endowment for education by, 221.
Ebury, Lord, on revision of the Prayer-Book, 571.
Edinburgh, Burns's reception and life in, 160.
Education, ground taken up by the Nonconformists on, 338.
Education Bill, the, and the Nonconformists, 510.
Education question, the, before Parliament, 378.
EDUCATIONAL EXPERIMENT IN YORKSHIRE, AN, 219.
Egyptian serpent-charmer, an, 169.
Empire, fashion in France during the 32.
Employers and employed, relations between, 74.
England, defects of cookery in, 125—society, &c., in, in the time of Voltaire, 276—Taine's Notes on, reviewed, 741.
English language, comparison of it with French, 521 et seq.
Eton, state of, in Shelley's time, and his life there, 417.
Ewelme Rectory case, the, 383—Gladstone's conduct on it, 501.
'Examiner,' the, on the position of the Government, 369, note.
Fashion, successive eras of, in France, 32.
Finances, the French, 609.
Fleck, Sam, a sketch, 492.
FOOD IN ITS RELATIONS TO FRENCH HOME LIFE, 121.
Food, the supply of, to the troops during the Autumn Manœuvres, 326.
FRANCE, THE SITUATION IN, 609.
France, Royal and Republican, by Reeve, review of, 735.
France, successive eras of fashion in, 32—importance and relations of dinner, &c., 122—influence of Voltaire, 270—sketch of its state in his time, 273—its present condition as regards constitution, 335—prevalence of abstract ideas in Sociology in, 336—influence of women in, 442—announcements of marriages, deaths, &c., 448—present financial state, 609—reconstitution of the army, 611—the present commercial treaties, and their repudiation, 616—aspect of the religious question, 617—causes of her fall before Germany, 618—present state and prospects of parties, 620.
Frankenstein, publication of, 429.
Frederick the Great, his connection with Voltaire, 285.
FRENCH HOME LIFE, No. III., Furniture, 30—No. IV., Food, 121—No. V., Manners, 441—No. VI., Language, 519.
French furniture, its superiority, 37.
French and German intellect, contrast between, 207 et seq.
Frenchmen, manners of, toward each other, 454.
Fuel, the supply of, to the troops during the Autumn Manœuvres, 327.
Funerals, invitations to, in France, 449.
FURNITURE in its relations to French

Home Life, 30—successive fashions in it, 32—that of the Second Empire, 33—its injurious influences, 34—superiority of French, 37.
German and French intellect, contrast between, 207 et seq.
Germany, the fall of France before, and its causes, 618.
Gladstone, Mr., his declaration against Home Rule in Ireland, 229—contrast between him and Pitt, 241—the American difficulty, 243—his present position in Parliament, 368 et seq.—his conduct on the Royal Parks Bill, 500—and on the Alabama question, 501—the opponents of the Parks Bill, 628—downward course of his Ministry, 757.
Godwin, Mary, Shelley's connection with, 427—their marriage, 429.
Government, the, its weakness and vacillation, 231.
Grant Duff, Mr., on the system of reconstruction in the United States, 350.
Greene, Mr., on the Ewelme Rectory case, 502.
Guedalla, Mr., his interview with Gladstone, 627.
Harry Richmond, review of, 755.
Hartington, the Marquis of, on the state of Ireland, 229, note.
HAUD IMMEMOR.—THACKERAY IN AMERICA, 687.
HAUNTED ENGHENIO, THE, 86.
Hogg, Jefferson, Shelley's friendship with, 418 et seq. pass., 420.
Holland, Sir Henry, his Recollections of past life reviewed, 483.
Holland, Lady, sketch of, by Sir Henry Holland, 487.
Holland House and its society, sketch of, 487.
Home Rule, the cry for, in Ireland, 228—progress of the movement, 377.
Horsman, Mr., on the Ministry, 247.
Housekeeping in France, 123 et seq.—its cost there, 127 et seq.
Humboldt's Cosmos, sensation caused by it, 206.
Hunt, Mr., on the Ewelme case, 502.
Imperialists, the, their position in France, 621, 625.
Indoor life, French, 452.
Infidelity, character of modern, 278.
International League, dangers from the, 230.
Ireland, the cry for Home Rule in, 228—present condition of, and position of the Government in regard to it, 376—Shelley's residence in, 425.
JERUSALEM, THE DESOLATION OF, 83.
KEIGHLEY, EDUCATIONAL EXPERIMENT AT, 219.
Keighley Mechanics' Institute, the, 219, 220.
Khorovod, the, a Russian dance, 498.
Labour, its relations to capital in connection with the nine hours movement, 69 et seq.
Lancashire, Disraeli's invitation to, 512—his reception, 629.
Land, new views promulgated regarding, 337.
LANGUAGE in its relations to French Home Life, 519—its persistence as a national characteristic, ib.—its moral influence, 520—peculiarities of French as compared with English, 521 et seq.
Lectionary, the new, 570—sanctioned by Convocation, 577.
LEE, GENERAL, 348—his ancestry and parentage, 351—early habits, &c., 352—his character, 353—anecdotes of him, 355—letter to his son, 356—his merit as regards the war, 358.
Lee, Richard Henry, father of the General, 351.
Legitimists, the, their position in France, 621, 625.
Lever's Lord Kilgobbin, review of, 756.
Licensing Bill, the, 641.
Lind, Dr. Shelley's connection with, 418.
Local rates, the motion and discussion on, 639.
Lord Kilgobbin, review of, 756.
Lords, House of, the arguments brought against it, 335.
Louis XV., fashion under, in France, 32.
Lowe, Mr., his budget for the year, 633.
MAID OF SKER, THE, Part VI., 1—Part VII., 176—Part VIII., 291—Part IX., 389—Part X., 587—Part XI., 647.
Manchester, Disraeli's reception at, 629—his speech there, 631.
MANCHESTER NONCONFORMISTS, THE, AND POLITICAL ECONOMY, 334.
MANNERS in their relation to French Home Life, 441—their importance and difficulty of discussing them, ib.—influence of women, 442 et seq.—announcements of marriages, deaths, &c., 449—balls, parties, &c., ib.—drawing-room usages, 450—description of the bow, 451—manners of children, 452—indoor life, ib.—those of the men toward each other, 454—their moral influence on the nation, 456.
Marketing in France, 123.
Marriages, announcements of, in France, 449.
Marseille, cookery, &c., at, 132.
Masters and men, true relations between, 74.
Mauchline, society in, in the time of Burns, and its influence on him, 150 et seq.
Mayo, Lady, the pension to, 645.
MEGÆRA, A SAILOR'S NARRATIVE OF THE LAST VOYAGE OF THE, 93—Chap. I.,

The hazard on the Ocean, 93—Chap. II., The last days of the Megæra, 100—Chap. III., Life in St. Paul's, 108—Chap. IV., The Rescue, 115—appendix, 119.
Megæra, loss of the, its causes, &c., 235.
Megæra commission, the, its report, 513.
Meredith's Adventures of Harry Richmond, 755.
Militia, the Ministerial plan regarding the, 504.
MINISTERS BEFORE PARLIAMENT, 368.
MINISTERS THE, THE PARLIAMENT, AND THE COUNTRY, 500.
MORLEY'S VOLTAIRE, review of, 270.
National workshops, grounds on which advocated in France, 336.
Navy, the, its present condition, 375.
NEW BOOKS—Life of Edward Denison, 478—Recollections of Sir Henry Holland, 483—Memoir of Robert Chambers, 489—The Songs of the Russian People, 496—Reeve's Royal and Republican France, 735—Taine's Notes on England, 741—South Sea Bubbles, 749—Shooting the Rapids, 753—Adventures of Harry Richmond, 755—Lord Kilgobbin, 756.
Newcastle, the nine hours struggle at, 76.
NINE HOURS MOVEMENT, THE, 68.
Ninon d'Enclos, patronage of Voltaire by, 272.
Nonconformists, the, and the Education question, 338—position taken up by them on the Education Bill, 510.
O'Dowd, Cornelius—the American Revoke, 364.
Officers, selection of, for commanding reserves, 324.
Orleanists, the, their position in France, 621, 625.
Owen, Professor, Serpent-charming in Cairo by, 169.
Oxford, Shelley's life at, 418 et seq.—circumstances of his expulsion from it, 422.
PARLIAMENT, MINISTERS BEFORE, 368.
Parliament, the last session of, its abortive character, 231.
Parties, invitations to, in France, 449.
Parties, present state and prospects of, in France, 621.
Peebles, sketch of, 490.
Pitt, contrast between, and Gladstone, 241.
Population, its adaptation to subsistence, 71, 72.
Prayer-Book, the, its long-continued use in its present form, 567—the modern attempts at its revision, 569—the new Lectionary, 570—the proposals for its reform, ib.—occasional departures from it, 573—the measures of Convocation regarding it, 576 et seq.
"Prayer-Book remodelled," the, 569.
Prometheus Unbound, criticism on, 432 et seq.
Property, attacks on, 227.
Provence, the cookery of, 133.
Prussia, present position of, toward France, 611, 615.
Queen Mab, Shelley's, remarks on, 426.
Quertier, Pouyer, his finance measures in France, 610.
QUINET'S CREATION, review of, 206.
Ralston's Songs of the Russian People, review of, 496.
REASONABLE FEARS OF THE COUNTRY, THE, 227.
Recruiting, Mr. Cardwell's plan for, 503.
REED, W. B., SKETCHES OF THACKERAY BY, 678.
Reeve's Royal and Republican France, review of, 735.
Religious question, the, its present aspect in France, 617.
Republican party in France, their position, &c., 621.
Republicanism, increase of, in the country, 227.
Reserves, disposal of, in Manœuvres, 323—officering of them, 324.
Restoration, fashion in France during the, 32.
"Revised Prayer-Book," the, 569.
Revolt of Islam, publication of, 431.
Roebuck, Mr., on the Ministry, 247.
Rossetti, notices of Shelley from, 423 et seq.
Royal Parks Bill, Mr. Gladstone's conduct on the, 500—the deputation to Gladstone on, 628—its abandonment, 636.
Royal Warrant, the, 240.
Russian people, the songs of the, 496.
Ryle, Mr., on revision of the Prayer-Book, 571.
St. Andrews, sketch of, 489.
St. Paul's, arrival of the Megæra and her crew at, 100—description of it, 102—life in it, 108—their rescue from it, 115.
Salisbury, the Marquis of, on the Alabama case, 643.
Schenk, General, on the Secession generals, 348.
Scotland, influence, &c., of Burns in, 140.
Scourfield, Mr., on the Ewelme case, 502.
Second Empire, fashion in France during the, 32.
Sermons, the outcry against, 580.
Serpent-charming in Cairo, 169.
Shand's Shooting the Rapids, review of, 753.
SHELLEY, PERCY BYSSHE, 415—peculiarity of his moral constitution, ib.—his birth and early life, 416—life at

Eton, 417—removal to Oxford and life there, 418—his expulsion from it, and subsequent life, 422—his marriage with Harriet Westwood, 423 et seq.—breach with his family, 422, 424—visit to Ireland, 425—publication of Queen Mab, 426—commencement of his connection with Mary Godwin, 427—desertion of his wife, and her death, 428—publication of Alastor, 429—marriage to Mary Godwin, ib.—the case of his children, 430—retires to Italy and his life there, 430—the Revolt of Islam, 431—Prometheus Unbound and criticism on it, 432 et seq.—the Cenci, 435—his minor poems, 438—his deficiencies as a poet, 439—his death, 440.
Shooting the Rapids, review of, 753.
SITUATION IN FRANCE, THE, 609.
Soups, large use of, in France, 126.
South Sea Bubbles, review of, 749.
Southern States, oppression of the, by the North, 350, note.
Speke, Captain, answer to attacks by Captain Burton on, 703 et seq.
Staël, Madame de, sketch of, by Sir H. Holland, 486.
State employment, grounds on which advocated in France, 336.
STATESMEN IN AND OUT OF PARLIAMENT, 627.
Stewart, Dugald, sketch of Burns by, 162.
Subsistence and population, relations between, 71, 72.
Supply department, the, during the Autumn Manœuvres, 325.
Switzerland, Shelley's residence in, 429.
Taine's Notes on England, review of, 741.
Tariff, the new French, 617.
Taste, varieties and development of, 30.
THACKERAY IN AMERICA, 678.
Thiers, speech of, on the position and prospects of France, 609—his reconstitution of the army, 611.
Thrupp, Captain, notices of, in the "Last Voyage of the Megæra," 93 et seq. passim.
'Times,' the, on the army, 233—on the Manchester reception of Disraeli, 629.
Tonson, Jonas, endowment for education by, 221.
Trade schools, erection, &c., of, at Keighley, 222 et seq.
Transport department, the, during the Autumn Manœuvres, 324.
Trollope, A., on the system of reconstruction in the United States, 350.
TRUE REFORMER, A, Part I., 249—Part II., 458—Part III., 539—Part IV., 709.
TWO MRS. SCUDAMORES, THE, conclusion, 46.
Uniformity, the Act of, its results, 567.
United States, the reconstructive system in, 350—the conduct of the Government in the difficulty with them, 370—the Alabama difficulty with, 514 et seq.—its slow progress, 642.
VOLTAIRE, 270—his influence in France, ib.—parentage and early life, 272—imprisonments in the Bastille, 274—visit to England, 275—its effect on him, 276 et seq.—peculiarities of his system, 278—return to France and life there, 279—connection with Madame Chatelet, 281—successive works, 282—his tragedies, 285—his visit to Frederick the Great, 285—Candide, &c., 287—his last visit to Paris and reception there, 288.
W. W. S., the Desolation of Jerusalem, by, 83—Chersiphron, 85.
Wages, relations of, to the nine hours movement, 77.
Westwood, Harriet, Shelley's marriage to, 423 et seq.—his desertion of her and her death, 428.
Women, social influence of, in France, 442.
YORKSHIRE, AN EDUCATIONAL EXPERIMENT IN, 219.
Yorkshire Board of Education, the, 220.
Young Randal, ballad of, 495.
ZANZIBAR, A Review, 691.